

5.10.18

Dear Parents,

There are lots of very important messages in this week's newsletter. Please do read and make a note! We have Parent's Evening coming up. You will need to book these appointment through the Parent Portal so please do make sure your log in works. We are also fast approaching our first 'WOW week'. There will be lots of activities for the children to take part in, including a trip to the Royal Armouries. Please do check your emails next week for further information about this.

We have had a busy week at school this week. Lots of visitors and different things going on. Our children have been very well behaved and have made us very proud. Please do have a look at our Facebook page to see what we have been up
